5. Every such compensation will be determined by a Revenue Officer who will be deputed by the Collector to accompany the forces engaged in any such practice.

6. The compensation for exclusion or removal from any area declared to be a danger zone will be disbursed by such Revenue Officer, at not less than the minimum rates prescribed by rules made under section 13 of the said Act, before exclusion or removal is enforced.

7. All claims for compensation other than that referred to in paragraph 6 shall be made to the Revenue Officer after the field firing and artillery practice is over at a place in the locality to be selected by him.

8. The Revenue Officer shall consider all claims for compensation and determine, on local investigation and where possible after hearing the claimant the amount of compensation, if any, which shall be awarded in each case and shall disburse on the spot to the claimant the compensation so determined as payable.

9. Any claimant dissatisfied with or refusal of the Revenue Officer to award him compensation or with the amount of compensation awarded to him by the Revenue Officer may, at any time, within fifteen days from the communication to him of the decision of the Revenue Officer, give notice to the Revenue Officer of his intention to appeal against the decision. Where any such notice has been given the Collector shall constitute a Commission consisting of himself or Chairman or person nominated by the Officer Commanding the forces engaged in such practice and two persons nominated by the District Board, and the Commission shall decide all appeals of which notice has been given. The decision of the Commission shall be final and no suit shall lie in any civil cort in respect of any matter decided by the Commission.

10. No fee shall be charged in connection with any claim, notice, appeal, application or documment filed before the Revenue Officer, Collector or the Commission.

11. The method of making claims for compensation and preferring appeals from original awards of compensation, the procedure of the Revenue Officer and the Commission for the expeditious settlement of claims and of appeals and the payment of compensaion so far as possible direct to the claimant and the principle to be followed by them in assessing the amount of compensation to be awarded shall be such as are prescribed by rules made under section 13 of the said Act.

12. If during the period specified in the notification to be issued under sub-section (2) of section 9 of the said Act any person within the notified area—
